Yes it is. Are you interested in it? I can send you some pics and a copy of the original manual with all the specs if you are.

Are you still interested in selling your amp? If so, I'd sure like to see some photos of it. Let's talk.

Hello again. I am still very interested in your amp. Would you PLEASE contact me about it, if it's still available. I would love to get some kind of feedback from you, as I've been trying to communicate with you since 17 March.

Looking forward to hearing from you ...

Note the date it was listed Dec. 2014, I would bet it is gone, but who knows.

Kustom_Bart,

Thanks for your thoughts. Indeed, who knows? All I know is that it was available on 17 March 2015, then no communications since. I'll keep trying until I get a reply. A reply would seem like the honorable thing to do, whether it's available or not. If nothing else, maybe they'd pull the ad from this forum if it's no longer available. Then again, maybe I'm just too old school, like old tuck'n'roll solid-state amps from the '60s!
