Hi,1G(1 Guitar speaker,1H one horn)...It is worth what you can get for it,but let me say these are not real popular cabinets so it better be real clean.I may be interested my self if the price is right.Jim

Color and condition will play a roll in what it might be worth. Also if any modifications to the driver or speaker have been done over the years. Is there a cover still with the cab, casters, and plastic inserts on the handles?

Pleat can tell you that I bought a very clean pair for 200.00 that were bone stock. So, they aren't worth much.

Thanks everyone It's in perfect condition no damage to anything but a few dust bunnies lol. My husband took it to his favorite music store and put it on consignment. They had a guy in there looking for one the other day and we live in a town with like 80,000 ppl so thats pretty good lol.

It's being assesed today and they will let us know the value.
