Looking at possibly buying these. Can anyone tell me anything about them. The serial number is 27828. What would you value them at? I don't see where to post a photo in here. Is that possible? They are black sparkle.

I would say they are most likely Charcoal in color, no black sparkle made. It was just black no metal flake. I would post this on the main forum to ask this question as you would get more action there.

Yes, post a pic and as many as you can, color and condition is EVERYTHING when it comes to Kustoms. Do a search on how to post a pic.

If you can't figure out how to post a picture, private message me and I'll send you my email address and you can send pictures there. I can also forward your pic's on to Pleat and he can give you an idea of value as well.
