Happy New Year everyone. Hoping 2016 is a great year for everyone on this site.

Talk of interest in having a reunion would be something great to plan for this year as well.

I would like for everyone on here that is seriously interested in doing a reunion to please private message me your email address along with the state you live in and a good phone number and mailing address. I will compile all the info and at least we can see where the majority of our members are located and look into the possibility of putting something together. If this is something everyone really wants to do, we need to get organized and start making plans now. Anyone else who wants to help put this together, let me know. Thanks to the internet, most of the work can be done at home and not on foot.

So everyone contact me and lets get 2016 started off on the right foot. We ain't getting any younger!

Well it appears that only 3 of us are interested in having a reunion since only 2 people contacted me. So I at least was trying to get something started. Hope those that attended reunions in the past enjoyed them.....doesn't look like you'll ever see one again.

There is a discrepancy between "interest" and "possible" in my case.
Would love to, but Sweden is a wee bit far away...

There a big difference in distance and expense in your case. But appreciate your response. If your planning to ever visit the United States in the near future, I'd do it before next January. There's probably going to be a lot of people thrown out on their ear but not may getting in after that. The era of Trump is looming.

I really hope "Trump-era" is one of those things that will never be.
Dark times these - we have a party here that's quite Trump-ish as well, and some idiots actually believe their lies.

I don't think this is the best place to start political conversation. It may start a shit storm and hard feelings. This is a great place for everyone to come and learn and share about music and Kustoms, but there are two things that you don't discuss at the dinner table or at a party, politics and religion! As a veteran that fought for this country and for the bill of rights to protect them, you can understand how I feel about the way things are going right now!

Point well taken.....I merely was making a joke, but see how things could get out of hand. My apologies.
