Hey guys I was just wondering if the colors for Kustom amps were custom colors made by Uniroyal for Kustom or were they standard colors that Uniroyal made?

Sunnhead, do you have a source that still has the original fabric? All I have seen is the Zodiac brand that is similar.

Yes, you can still get them today, but many of the sparkle colors are now on a black back ground , and not a silver back ground and as such they do not pop your eye as much!
