A re-issue of the 1962 Bison guitar, celebrating the 40th anniversary of the classic Burns body shape with its inward curved body horns and advanced pickup selection system.

With its distinctive batwing headstock, this guitar was Jim Burns' greatest creation and this re-issue retains its strong look, sound and character. Already the recipient of great praise from the music media, it has a punchy vintage tone but delivers great modern sounds with its unique Wild Dog and Split Sound settings.

Features include:

One tone control

One master volume

A/B pickup selector

Three Burns Tri-Sonic pickups

Burns deluxe tremolo unit

Wild Dog/Split Sound setting

Indonesian nato body

Bi-flex two way type truss rod

Neck binding

Rosewood fingerboard

Scale length: 24.75" 22 frets

Bolt on hardrock maple neck

43mm nut width

Classic polyester finish

Burns deluxe machine heads

Batwing original headstock
