I am new to Kustom amps having acquired a k150-8, it sounds really good and is in good condition. I do have one question regarding the Pedal (I just purchased it also but have not rec'vd it yet) Can you use the reverb and trem on the right channel without the pedal?
Thanks in advance for your help.
Kevin

Hello and welcome to our collective obsession with Kustom amps!

Sorry that your post had be delayed on getting put up here, but spammers have had a feild day here as of late so posting have to be approved first.

The foot switch is only needed to turn off the effects on the fly, not activate them.
