What the heck is this?

<https://www.ebay.com/itm/255184136412>

Is this original, or some kind of hatchet job? Looks original, but...weird!

Ha! Ok, makes sense.

I wonder why. Maybe they thought having the ports at the bottom would improve the "bottom" end.

Or having the speaker up higher gave better projection over the heads / body's of people in a room/ club.
