We picked up some new in the box Kustom SRO speakers from an old Kustom dealer who's store had closed- 2 pristine 12L SRO's, with fins, made by EV for Kustom. One box is still factory sealed, the other open- that speaker checks out fine, so would guess the other would. 200.00 for the pair, plus any shipping. Also picked up a box of Kustom Covers we are wading through, and a bunch of single button roundfootswitches, like for a PA head. Have a great weekend !

I would be interested in covers for any of the following:
K50 combo
K150 2x10 combo
K200 head
K200 3x12 speaker cab
Kombo Organ (not likely, but hey, doesn't hurt to ask!)

I can supply dimensions if you think one might fit but aren't sure.

Hey there

Please forgive the late reply. I don't have any of those covers- if they should pop up, I will let you know. Thanks!
